

In addition:

in order to allow the travel of the business trips to be made by motor vehicles, the employer should issue a single order for fuel consumption rate, where the rates of the used vehicles should be indicated for inside and outside settlements, as well as for summer and winter periods. The fuel consumption rate should be in accordance with the technical specification of the car, which shows the consumption rate.

Travel expenses shall not be paid when for some reason a free form of travel is used.
